Perth, Western Australia [28 June, 2010] – Western Australia's international film festival, Revelation, has announced the first screening of the film The Night of the Triffids, a recently re-discovered live performance 'document' of homegrown band The Triffids at their peak.

Another lost musical treat from the 1980's to be given renewed life is the apocalyptic rock and roll sci-fi musical Sons of Steel. Starring Perth's Rob Hartley as Black Alice as well as the legendary Jeff Duff, this is a truly unique film from Australia's unknown cinematic history that surprises with its ambition, epic scope, and wildness.

Other highlights of the Revelation 2010 Special Events line up include the presentation of a stunning collection of award winning films designed specifically for the full dome environment, straight from the USA's Dome Fest.

ScreenWest's popular and prized annual event, Get Your Shorts On! returns with another diverse showcase of Western Australia's talented emerging filmmakers. This year's event promises a dynamic mix of light and dark, fact and fiction, live action and animation – as well as the opportunity to meet the people behind the films.

The unusual and extremely popular super 8 mini festival, Revel-8, is back with a new theme – CURIOSITY. Expect an unforgettable night with twenty short films shot on the super 8 format and scored by the very talented music composition students at WAAPA.

Revelation's Animation Showcase presents eight of the best Australian and international animated short films, including Shaun Tan's Dendy-award winning film, The Lost Thing.

A selection of bold and speculative films curated from the Fantastic Planet: Sydney Science Fiction and Fantasy Film Festival will also be on offer, including the award winning Eraser Children, introduced by director Nathan Christoffel.
